

Catholic High School Student Information Form

2022-2023 Admissions Cycle

DUE: December 9, 2022

Student Name: _____ Date of Birth: _____
 (Last) (First) (Middle) (Month/Date/Year)

Home Phone: _____ - _____ Gender: ___ M ___ F

Street Address: _____ Apt. #: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Student's Parish: _____
 (N/C if not Catholic)

School Name: _____ Location: _____

Home Room Teacher: _____ School Phone: _____
 (Primary 8th Grade Teacher)

School Email: _____

Please insert the LETTER and NUMERIC grade:

Grades	Religion	Reading	English (Language Arts, Grammar, Vocabulary)	Math: Regular	Math: Algebra	Social Studies	Science	Foreign Language	# Days Absent	# Days Late
7th Grade: Final Grades
8th Grade: 1st Quarter

Explanation of symbols: A=93-100; B=85-92; C=77-84; D=70-76; F=Below 70

Honors Courses: Use an asterisk (*) to indicate honors courses.

How many years had this student attended Catholic elementary school? _____

Internal Confidential Communication

This document is intended for the internal, confidential communication between Archdiocesan elementary schools and prospective Catholic high schools in the Archdiocese of Washington. This information is not to be a part of a student's permanent record and should be maintained in the office of admissions at each local high school and properly destroyed once admission decisions have been made. In no event should this document or the information contained therein be shared with parents or prospective students.

Principal Recommendation:

I recommend this student (check one):

Academic Ability and Promise:

- Enthusiastically
- With Confidence
- Recommend
- Recommend with Reservation
- Not at all

Character and Personal Promise:

- Enthusiastically
- With Confidence
- Recommend
- Recommend with Reservation
- Not at all

Overall:

- Enthusiastically
- With Confidence
- Recommend
- Recommend with Reservation
- Not at all

I wish to provide additional information (circle one):

- Call me at the number provided
- Email me at the address provided
- I will contact your admissions office to set up a date and time for a conversation.
- N/A

Principal's Contact Information

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Principal's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Principal's Name (print): _____

Internal Confidential Communication

This document is intended for the internal, confidential communication between Archdiocesan elementary schools and prospective Catholic high schools in the Archdiocese of Washington. This information is not to be a part of a student's permanent record and should be maintained in the office of admissions at each local high school and properly destroyed once admission decisions have been made. In no event should this document or the information contained therein be shared with parents or prospective students.

Academic Readiness

Seventh and eighth grade subject teachers evaluate the applicant using the following scale: 1= One of the best ever.
2= Excellent. 3= Good. 4= Average. 5= Below Average. 6= Poor. N/A= No Opportunity to Observe

Academic Ratings

Teacher Evaluations (use scale above)	Religion	Reading	English (Language Arts, Grammar, Vocabulary)	Math: Regular	Math: Algebra	Social Studies
Ability to work independently
Ability to work in a group
Ability to follow directions
Ability to express ideas orally
Achievement related to potential
Creativity
Intellectual curiosity
Organization of time and work
Self-motivation
Textbook used

Personal Attributes

Conduct
Leadership
Emotional maturity
Relationship with peers
Relationship with adults
Concern for others
Self-confidence
Teachers' Initials

Internal Confidential Communication

This document is intended for the internal, confidential communication between Archdiocesan elementary schools and prospective Catholic high schools in the Archdiocese of Washington. This information is not to be a part of a student's permanent record and should be maintained in the office of admissions at each local high school and properly destroyed once admission decisions have been made. In no event should this document or the information contained therein be shared with parents or prospective students.

Academic Readiness

Seventh and eighth grade subject teachers evaluate the applicant using the following scale: 1= One of the best ever.
2= Excellent. 3= Good. 4= Average. 5= Below Average. 6= Poor. N/A= No Opportunity to Observe

Academic Ratings

Teacher Evaluations (use scale above)	Science	Music	Art	Physical Education	Foreign Language (optional)	Other
Ability to work independently
Ability to work in a group
Ability to follow directions
Ability to express ideas orally
Achievement related to potential
Creativity
Intellectual curiosity
Organization of time and work
Self-motivation
Textbook used

Personal Attributes

Conduct
Leadership
Emotional maturity
Relationship with peers
Relationship with adults
Concern for others
Self-confidence
Teachers' Initials

Internal Confidential Communication

This document is intended for the internal, confidential communication between Archdiocesan elementary schools and prospective Catholic high schools in the Archdiocese of Washington. This information is not to be a part of a student's permanent record and should be maintained in the office of admissions at each local high school and properly destroyed once admission decisions have been made. In no event should this document or the information contained therein be shared with parents or prospective students.

Standardized Test Data

Scantron Performance Series, Spring 2022

For Performance Series results, please attach the Extended Student Profile report or label to this form. If the student does not have Performance Series results from seventh grade, please substitute other test scores, sixth grade scores, etc.

Are standardized test scores indicative of perceived ability? Yes _____ No _____

If no, please explain below.

Internal Confidential Communication

This document is intended for the internal, confidential communication between Archdiocesan elementary schools and prospective Catholic high schools in the Archdiocese of Washington. This information is not to be a part of a student's permanent record and should be maintained in the office of admissions at each local high school and properly destroyed once admission decisions have been made. In no event should this document or the information contained therein be shared with parents or prospective students.

8/12/22

Notes

Please be specific when providing information about the following topics. Comments by the homeroom teacher are carefully noted in the admissions process.

1. What are the first words that come to mind when describing this student?

a.

b.

c.

2. What words would you use to describe this student's strengths?

a.

b.

c.

3. List areas in need of growth for this student

a.

b.

c.

4. Describe this student's work ethic

a.

b.

c.

Internal Confidential Communication

This document is intended for the internal, confidential communication between Archdiocesan elementary schools and prospective Catholic high schools in the Archdiocese of Washington. This information is not to be a part of a student's permanent record and should be maintained in the office of admissions at each local high school and properly destroyed once admission decisions have been made. In no event should this document or the information contained therein be shared with parents or prospective students.

8/12/22

5. Please explain excessive tardiness or absences if applicable

6. List student's activities or interests

a.

b.

c.

7. Describe parental involvement and cooperation

8. Note other information that may influence this student's achievement in school

Internal Confidential Communication

This document is intended for the internal, confidential communication between Archdiocesan elementary schools and prospective Catholic high schools in the Archdiocese of Washington. This information is not to be a part of a student's permanent record and should be maintained in the office of admissions at each local high school and properly destroyed once admission decisions have been made. In no event should this document or the information contained therein be shared with parents or prospective students.

8/12/22